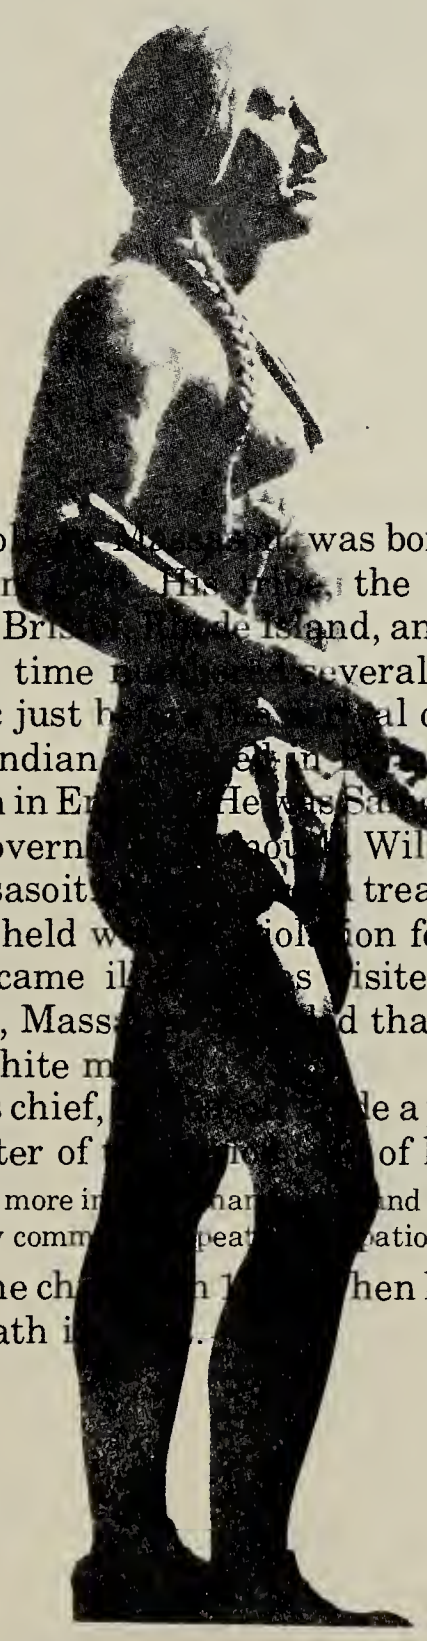
Chief Massasoit



The namesake of this co[illegible] was born within the present boundaries of Massachusetts in [illegible]. His tribe, the Wampanoags, were located throughout the regions of Bris[illegible]de Island, and Massachusetts. The Wampanoags, who had at one time [illegible] several thousand, had almost been destroyed by an epidemic just b[illegible]al of the "Mayflower."

In March of 1621, an Indian [illegible]outh, and surprised the Pilgrims by speaking to them in E[illegible]. He was Sa[illegible], and had come to arrange a meeting between the Govern[illegible] William Bradford, and the Chief of the Wampanoags, Massasoit[illegible] treaty of peace was signed by the two men, a treaty which held w[illegible]ion for fifty-four years.

In 1623, Massasoit became il[illegible]s visited by Edward Winslow who effected a cure. In return, Mass[illegible]d that a neighboring tribe was to make an attack on the white m[illegible].

All through his reign as chief, [illegible]e a practice of living in harmony with the colonists. A writer of [illegible] of him:

> "He was a chief renowned more i[illegible]nd was, as long as he lived, a friend to the English, even as they comm[illegible]peat[illegible]pations upon his land and liberties."

Little is known about the ch[illegible]hen he sold the site of Duxbury to the English, until his death i[illegible].

Dean Donovan's- "Message to the students"
"Night is drawing nigh-"
For all that has been-thanks!
To all that shall be-yes!"
Dag Hammarskjold

My hope is that each student has learned, grown and become a better person because of his/her experience at M.C.C., Change is life and what Massasoit has given each of you is just a taste of life. Now it is time to leave and I wish each member of the class of '83 happiness, success and a future filled with only good things. I shall remember you for you touched my life in a very special way.

Thanx to: Steve Albert, Rich Greaves, Marcus Maininius, W. Washington

This yearbook was completed by a very few individuals and alot of personal time. It was tough but it was done. We hope you enjoy the fruit of our labor. Remember apathy is not pretty and only you can prevent forrest fires.

In Memoriam

On Saturday, April 30, 1983, Professor Francis Clinton, teacher of English & Logic, died. He was a dedicated teacher and a true lover of life; a teacher of wisdom and celebration - the avant garde- and a source of understanding and inspiration to all he touched. Professor Francis Clinton will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved him, and forever remembered in this memorial page.

From: Life at Massasoit - The Ultimate Reality

The ultimate reality is an ongoing process of self-growth & realization, touch & feel & taste & smell, of happiness & beauty. To find the meaning of life and the truth that the world contains within the gleam of the eye of the heart & the universe, you and I need only to unlock the door of memory and happy times and see into the light of knowledge, love, & life: and there you will find the ultimate reality . . . "The eye of the beholder"

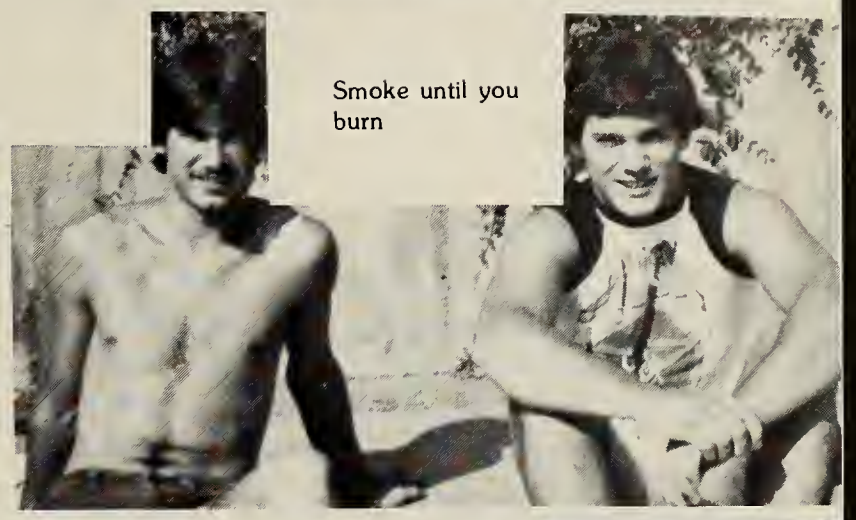
Many moose running with snowflake antlers - on the loose - nasal damage reported -



Smoke until you burn

Spring dance at Christo's II - featuring Dale and the Duds

Dancing is the expression of our most primitive desires.

Good luck & many laughs to Johnny, and all the little people!
